

More About George Washington Carver

A

Reader's Theater Script

2 Readers: George Washington Carver (GWC)

Interviewer

GWC: My name is George Washington Carver. I lived long ago.

Interviewer: You lived long ago. Tell me more about you.

GWC: I was an African-American who could not go to school.

Interviewer: You were an African-American who could not go to school. Tell me more.

GWC: I learned to read. I loved to read.

Interviewer: You learned to read. You loved to read. Tell me more about you.

GWC: I loved science. I was a teacher.

Interviewer: You loved science. You were a teacher. Tell me more about you.

GWC: I found more ways to use peanuts, sweet potatoes and soybeans than anyone before me.

Interviewer: You found more ways to use peanuts, sweet potatoes and soybeans than anyone before you. What you found helped many people. People know who you are today.

GWC: Yes. My name is George Washington Carver and I lived long ago.

© HAPPY Reading 2011